Experience

Reckitt Benckiser UK (2010-Present)
Industrial Designer: Hands on role in the New Technologies Group, sourcing new technologies and designing consumer products across a wide range of brands to fit the VBL. Work in a multi-disciplinary and international environment, focusing on gaining consumer insights and prototyping innovative new concepts. Recently given the responsibility of managing an industrial design placement student, a rare opportunity which has added a new dimension to my role.

Gween Toys India (2009)
Industrial Designer: Designed three of the launch products for a new range of toys. Worked directly with the manufacturers to bring about improvements and designed the packaging

Freelance Worldwide (2008-Present)
Working for clients internationally, from some of Poland's largest plastic packaging manufacturers to a young Peruvian coffee company.
